

My House: Tanya Lippe's Lunch Box

Date

2016

Primary Maker

Melissa Cameron

Medium

Lunch box, stainless steel, vitreous enamel, and book of poems

Description

An elaborate chest piece made from a deconstructed lunch box. The pieces of lunch box have been punched and decorated with patterns then reassembled to form an openwork chest piece suggestive of the front of a garment. Also festooned across the front are necklaces made from parts of the lunch box. The piece is accompanied by a book of poems.
